St. James's, October 24.

THE following Addreſs of the Juſtices aſſigned to keep the Peace, and of the Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Principal Inhabitants, of the Liberty of the Tower of London, and Precincts thereof, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Robert Pell, David Wilmot, John Spiller, Thomas Fryon Cotton, and Richard Rutſon, Eſquires, and the Reverend Dr. Mayo, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly; and they had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices aſſigned to keep the Peace, and of the Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Principal Inhabitants of the Liberty of the Tower of London, and Precincts thereof.

DEEPLY impreſſed with a due Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government, we your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects think it our indiſpenſible Duty, at this alarming Criſis, to declare our Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion in America, excited, encouraged, and ſupported by the Advice and Aſſiſtance of a few diſappointed ſeditious Perſons at Home.

We feel exceedingly for the Diſtreſſes of our deluded Brethren, and lament the Situation into which their own Obſtinacy and unjuſt Spirit of Independency have brought them, under the falſe Colour of oppoſing the Right of Britiſh Taxation; attempting, at the ſame Time, to captivate your Royal Mind by ſetting up Charters granted by the Crown, as ſuperior in Operation and Effect to thoſe wiſe and wholeſome Laws enacted by the Britiſh Legiſlature for the Good of all your Majeſty's Subjects Abroad and at Home.

It is with the greateſt Reſpect and Gratitude we obſerve your Majeſty (inſtead of countenancing arbitrary Government) reſting the valuable Privileges of Britons on their natural and proper Baſis, viz. King, Lords, and Commons.

May therefore that Period ſoon arrive, when the Leaders and Abettors of this moſt unnatural Rebellion ſhall be brought to Shame and Puniſhment, and due Subordination and Reſpect be paid to the Britiſh Laws: To accompliſh which deſirable Ends, to reſtore Peace and Happineſs, and to promote every other Conſtitutional Purpoſe, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſupport the Honor and Dignity of the Crown, and maintain, with our Lives and Properties, the Authority of the Britiſh Legiſlature over the whole Empire, againſt all Invaders of our Glorious Conſtitution.

The following Addreſs of the Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater in the County of Somerſet has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Honourable Anne Poulett, One of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater in the County of Somerſet, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, with Hearts full of Allegiance, Loyalty, and Fidelity.

Truly ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, uniformly regulated by the Laws of this Country, by which our Conſtitutional Rights are preſerved and ſecured, we cannot, without the deepeſt Concern, behold the many inflammatory Methods uſed to alienate the Affections of your Majeſty's Subjects, to ſeduce them from their Duty, and even to countenance and abet the moſt ungrateful and daring Rebellion in America.

We therefore think it greatly incumbent on us to expreſs our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of ſuch flagitious Attempts; and to humbly beg your Majeſty's gracious Acceptance of our moſt faithful Aſſurances to ſupport your Majeſty, and the Legiſlative Authority of this Kingdom, to the utmoſt of our Power.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Nottingham, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Rochford, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Nottingham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

TRULY ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, we humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne to expreſs our Abhorrence of that Spirit of Faction and Rebellion, which has broken out, and ſtill exiſts in ſome of the Colonies in America. However their Behaviour may be cloaked under the ſpecious Pretence of Liberty, yet it is not difficult to diſcover, that the Term is only proſtituted to the vileſt and moſt unwarrantable Purpoſes. The daring Inſults ſhewn to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, we have ſeen with a Mixture of Indignation and Contempt, and could not help lamenting the Licentiouſneſs of the Times, and the too faſhionable Mode, now adopted by many, of reproaching the moſt Sacred Characters. We feel the Neceſſity your Majeſty was under in taking the Part you did in this Criſis of Affairs in America, as it was impoſſible for your Majeſty not to foreſee, that unleſs Government be ſupported with Firmneſs and Fortitude, Confuſion and Diſorder muſt inevitably enſue.

Though we are ſorry to give the moſt diſtant Hint, that any of the Subjects in this Kingdom can have been diſaffected to your Majeſty, yet we cannot ſo far diſguiſe our Opinion as not to ſay, that we believe, had not the Flames of Sedition been blown up by turbulent and diſſatisfied Minds, the Diſputes, now ſubſiſting between the Mother-Country and her Colonies, had long ſince been accommodated.

The Aſſociation forming in the Metropolis is a Confirmation of our Opinion; but we have the Satisfaction to hope, that your Majeſty's loyal Subjects will convince theſe few miſtaken Men, that their Attempts to ſow the Seeds of Diſcord amongſt us will prove as impotent as they are wicked; and that their Deſign will be too glaring to eſcape the Notice, and their Aim too deteſtable not to excite the honeſt Indignation of the Publick. In this Situation, whom have we to look up unto but your Majeſty, who is at once the Guardian of the Rights, and the Avenger of the Injuries of our Country? It becomes therefore our Duty to implore your Majeſty's Protection, and to offer you every Aſſiſtance in our Power.

As Clemency and Mercy are the Criterion of a noble Mind, it will be impoſſible for your Majeſty not to exerciſe them, whenever proper Conceſſions may be made from America; but till then, relying on the Wiſdom of your Majeſty, and your Council, we truſt you will take ſuch Meaſures as may effectually bring back the Coloniſts to a Senſe of their Duty, and at the ſame Time convince them, that, when the Honour and Dignity of the Crown demand Obedience, your Majeſty will not bear the Sword in vain.
